
“LUCKY TO BE IN SANCTUARY.”

‘Aiden’ is a name with Irish origins, meaning "little fire." Flames and fire can represent a variety of things, from warm and comforting to wild and powerful. So, when a little donkey was born on January 1 of this year, only to have his mother die shortly after his birth, it seemed like the perfect name to give him when he was arrived at the Donkey Sanctuary of Canada where luckily, he could be provided with the specialized care that would be needed to ensure his wellbeing. Lucky Aiden, but also lucky for everyone at the sanctuary who now shares in the joy of helping him to thrive.
